

CAN YOU ANSWER THESE? NO, REALLY!

- 1 What are your strengths?
- 2 What are your areas of growth?
- 3 When did you decide the education profession was for you?
- 4 Why did you choose our school?
- 5 What are resources you use when creating lessons for your students?
- 6 What does a typical day in your classroom resemble?
- 7 What will you do to check student understanding?
- 8 What will you do for students who did not understand the content?
- 9 What will you do for students who do understand the content, while you work with students who do not understand the content?
- 10 How do you plan to provide high quality instruction for ESL students?
- 11 How do you plan to provide high quality instruction for Special Education students?
- 12 What is the difference between modifying and accommodating lessons for Special Education students?
- 13 In the model lesson you brought to the interview, show me how you use data to drive your instruction?
- 14 Aside from tests, what other forms of data will you use to position our students for success?
- 15 Are willing to work extensive, uncompensated hours to ensure our students will succeed? Why?

CAN YOU ANSWER THESE? NO, REALLY!

- 16 What is your understanding of poverty and its affect on classroom instruction?
- 17 How will you ensure equity for all children within your classroom?
- 18 What are your thoughts on classroom discipline?
- 19 What is your classroom discipline model?
- 20 What are some expectations you will have for your students upon entering the classroom?
- 21 What are your procedures, if students defy your expectations?
- 22 How do you incorporate parents into your classroom?
- 23 Are parents a necessity for your classroom culture?
- 24 How will you engage with resistant parents? What is your process?
- 25 What is your philosophy on grading practices?
- 26 What grading metrics do you plan to use in your class?
- 27 What is high quality instruction?
- 28 What does engagement look like in your classroom?
- 29 Are you familiar with project based learning? Explain.
- 30 Are you familiar with the standards for your content area for our state/district?
- 31 How will you ensure your lessons are aligned to state/district standards?
- 32 How will you differentiate instruction for students in your class?
- 33 Do you have any questions for us?